All are invited to attend this half day information and training seminar. This event follows on from previous Our Wicklow Heritage seminars on the themes of 'Community Archaeology' and 'Making Local History'. These initiatives are organised by the Wicklow Heritage Forum as part of the implementation of the County Wicklow Heritage Plan 2017-22 and seek to support and animate community led heritage activity in County Wicklow.

Who should attend? Anyone interested in promoting the natural, built and cultural heritage of their local area, including tourism businesses, members of heritage groups, tidy towns, PURE Mile groups and volunteer recorders. Whether you have already developed a heritage interpretation project or are considering embarking upon one, this half day event will be of use. We especially welcome existing and new contributors to Our Wicklow Heritage, our online community heritage archive for county Wicklow.

Promotional Stands: As with previous events there will be scope for individual groups to host a stand to promote their activities. Please contact us to book.

To Book This is a FREE event but advance booking would be appreciated for catering purposes.

Contact: E mail to dburns@wicklowcoco.ie if you would like to attend or contact Deirdre Burns, Heritage Officer on T: 0404 20100 for any queries. Visit www.countywicklowheritage.org and www.wicklow.ie/heritage for more

Organised by the Wicklow Heritage Forum as an action of the County Heritage Plan and as part of Wicklow County Council's Creative Ireland Programme, aiming to place creativity at the heart of life in Wicklow.
